

RR NZ

Night two was recorded on row 8 again, but this time a bit to the left of the stage, but just under a row of hanging speakers, so the sound came thru well, even tho so many people around me wouldn't shut the fuck up.

The mic was clipped to my hat brim again, but I think I had it facing the wrong way, like it was pointed toward my head instead of away. I know. I'm sorry. Still a great recording, tho.

- Ugh ♥ Mr. Self Destruct
- Piggy went especially hard this set
- This Isn't The Place is easily my fav live song this tour. It is quintessential NIN
- HE PLAYED HAPPINESS IN SLAVERY FOR ME!
- I'm Afraid of Americans went especially hard.
- Home? Really? Weird. Okay.
- Just before playing All The Love In the World he joked "what could be next?" this is my fav part of this bootleg by far<sup>10/</sup>

Another amazing show at Red Rocks. Trent joked about taking a permanent residency at Red Rocks. I truly wish that he would. !!
